Amendment of Delhi rent control Act

1190. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH:
SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN:

Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to a report published in the Poineer of November, 16, 1993 under the heading 'Need to plug holes in Rent Control Law';

(b) if so, whether it is a fact that about two lakhs flats are lying vacant in ithecity of Bombay and eight lakh flats are lying vacant in Maharashtra State alone as the landlords are not giving their premises on rental basis due Jo the flaws in the Rent Control Law resulting in strained relations between the tenants and landlords;

(c) if so, what steps have so far been taken by the Government to incorporate the model Rent Control legislation placed before Parliament in their Rent Control Law and what are the names of the States which have so far incorporated the changes in their Rent Control Law; and

(d) by when Government propose to bring forward a suitable legislation amending the Delhi Rent Control Act on the basis of the model Rent Control legis lation and what are the details of the changes proposes to be made?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RE-SOURCES (SHRI P. K. THUNGON): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) Rent and tenancy matters being State subjects, the State Governments are to form their own legislations and implement the same. As such, Government of India is not concerned with the specific problems in individual cities and States.

The Government of India, however, has drafted a Model Rent Control Legislation for the Stats Governments to adopt with suitable modifications to suit local conditions. This Model Rent Control Legisla. tion has been communicated to varous State Governments, including that of Maharashtra.

(d) An amendment to the existing Rent Control Act on the lines of the Model Legislation has been formulated. The in troduction of this amendment depends on the enactment of the Constitution Amend ment Bill providing for establishing Rent Tribunals in various States.
